

Rachel Richards Personal Lines Underwriter

In April of 2013, Rachel Richards began working with a temp agency and assumed temporary employment with Farmers Mutual. In August of 2013, she was hired on as a permanent employee and worked as an Underwriting Assistant. Upon graduation, she began working full time in January 2014.

Ms. Richards graduated from the University of Phoenix with an Associate of Arts Degree in Business in January 2014. After she graduated, the Personal Lines Underwriter position became available and interviews were held. Ms. Richards was promoted to Personal Lines Underwriter in February 2014. Many months of training followed, and in November 2014 Rachel took and passed her P&C licensing.

Rachel Richards has one daughter, named Chloe. In 2015 Chloe will be 5 years of age and starting Kindergarten in the fall of 2015. Rachel and Chloe love to take weekend trips camping, hiking, and going to museums. With Chloe getting older, they're hoping to add amusement parks to that list soon!

The experiences and opportunities that have produced themselves for Rachel Richards at FMIC have been continual and deeply appreciated. She is looking forward to March of 2015, where she will be attending her first NAMIC conference held in Chicago. Rachel is excited to start on her path of continued education and growth in the wonderful world of insurance.
